

This house is called Browsholme Hall.
You say this like 'Brew zum'

It has been the Parker family home for 500 years.

Robert and Amanda Parker live here now with their two children, Eleanor and Roland.

When Robert came to live here in 1975 the house was dark and cold.

The family have worked hard to make it like it is today.

Our guides will show you round.

They will tell you about the rooms you are in.

There are seven rooms to go in.

This is the Main Hall.

It is the oldest part of the house.

You will see dolls dressed in religious clothing.

This is a coat worn by a soldier 400 years ago.

This is the Library

It is where lots of old books are kept.

There are pictures carved in the wood.

The clock was made for the Parker family.

This room is called the Drawing Room.

There are 2 pianos.

This is the Dining Room.

It is also a picture gallery.

This is the Ante Room.

There are pictures of Robert's mother and father on wall.

There is a rocking horse in the Back Corridor.

The window has a picture of Queen Elizabeth I.

This is the stairwell.

There is a suit of armour that is 500 years old.

There is a stained glass window on the stairs.

This is the Yellow Room.

The chest was made for the Parker family 300 years ago.

This is the Oak Drawing Room.
There is a lovely view from the window.

These are some other things you may see

These pictures in the stained glass window

The Parker Coat of Arms

You can walk around the garden.

You will see nice flowers.

You can walk to the Lake.

You can have something to eat and drink in our café.

We hope you enjoy your visit.